APPLICATION FOR DEFERRAL OR WAIVER OF COURT FEES AND COSTS AND CONSENT TO ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

IMPORTANT

This application for Deferral of Court Fees and Costs includes a Consent to Entry of Judgment. By signing this consent, you agree a judgment may be entered against you for all fees and costs that are deferred but remain unpaid thirty (30) days after entry of final judgment. At the conclusion of the case, you will receive a Notice of Court Fees and Costs Due indicating how much is owed and what steps you must take to avoid a judgment against you if you are still unable to pay. Additional details about this process are discussed in the Consent to Entry of Judgment section of this application.

I state under penalty of perjury that the statements made in this application are true.

I am requesting a deferral or waiver of the following fees and costs in my case.

- ☐ Any or all of the following: All filing fees; fees for the issuance of either a summons and subpoena; or fees for obtaining one certified copy of a temporary order in a domestic relations case or a final order or judgment in a civil proceeding.
- ☐ Fees for service of process by a constable.
- ☐ Filing fees and photocopy fees for the preparation of the record on appeal.

The basis for the request is:

- ☐ 1. WAIVER: I am permanently unable to pay. My income and liquid assets are insufficient or barely sufficient to meet the daily essentials of life and unlikely to change in the foreseeable future.
- ☐ 2. DEFERRAL:
 - ☐ a. I receive governmental assistance from the state / federal program(s) checked below:
 - ☐ Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) ☐ Food Stamps
 - ☐ Supplemental Security Income (SSI) for disabilities ☐ General Assistance (GA)

If you checked either boxes 1 or 2a., you must complete the Financial Questionnaire. You must sign this application in front of the court clerk or a notary public, if submitted by mail or a third party. You must also submit proof that you receive governmental assistance if you are submitting this application by mail or a third party. You must attach a photocopy of that proof.

OR

- ☐ b. My income is insufficient or is barely sufficient to meet the daily essentials of life, and includes no allotment that could be budgeted for the fees and costs that are required to gain access to the court.

NOTE: To determine whether income is insufficient or barely sufficient, the court will review your income and expenses. Among the factors the court may consider are:

1. Whether your gross income as computed on a monthly basis is 150% or less of the current federal poverty level. Gross monthly income includes your share of community property income if available to you.
2. Although your income is greater than 150% of the poverty level, you have proof of extraordinary expenses (including medical expenses and costs of care for elderly or disabled family members) or other expenses that the court finds are extraordinary that reduce your gross monthly income to at or below 150% of the poverty level.

OR

- ☐ c. I do not have the money to pay the court fees and costs now. I can pay the fees and costs at a later date. Explain:

If you checked either boxes 2b. or 2c., you must complete the Financial Questionnaire. You must sign this application in front of the court clerk or a notary public , if submitted by mail or a third party.

NOTE: If you receive a deferral and have unpaid fees at the end of your case you will receive a NOTICE OF COURT FEES AND COSTS DUE. This is to remind you that you may submit a supplemental application for further deferral or waiver if you believe you need more time to pay or cannot afford to pay your court fees and costs. The court will decide at that time whether or not you must pay. If you do not file a supplemental application, the original deferral order remains in effect and a consent judgment may be entered against you if you do not pay within thirty (30) calendar days after entry of final judgment.

If your case is dismissed for any reason, the fees and costs are still due.

CONSENT TO ENTRY OF JUDGMENT: By signing this Application, I agree a judgment may be entered against me for all fees and costs that are deferred but remain unpaid thirty (30) calendar days after entry of final judgment. Judgment may be entered against me unless any one of the following applies:

- A. Fees and costs are taxed to another party;
- B. I have an established schedule of payments in effect and I am current with those payments;
- C. I file a supplemental application for waiver or further deferral of fees and costs and a decision by the court is pending;
- D. In response to a supplemental application, the court orders that the fees and costs be waived or further deferred; or
- E. Within twenty days of the date the court denies the supplemental application, I either:
 - 1. Pay the fees and costs; or,
 - 2. Request a hearing on the court's order denying further deferral or waiver. If I request a hearing, the court cannot enter the consent judgment unless a hearing is held, further deferral or waiver is denied and payment has not been made within the time prescribed by the court.

If you appeal the final decision in your case, a consent judgment for deferred fees and costs that remain unpaid in the lower court shall not be entered until after the appeals process is concluded.
